WILL TAKE ADDITIONAL TESTIMONY IN ACCIDENT

Further testimony, it was stated, would be taken in the inquest being conducted by justice of the peace James J. Murphy, relative to the death of A. M. Payne, who was killed last Monday when a Texas & Pacific train struck the buggy in which he was riding. Fred Fahremann, the engineer at the time, thus far has been the only witness examined. He testified that the accident was in effect unavoidable, and that when he caught sight of the buggy it was too late to stop. After striking the vehicle the engineer said he stopped his train within a train's length, being five cars.

AMUSEMENTS.

Manager Fogg says: "This week ends the engagement of the Crawford opening company at the Alhambra. They have selected for the last part of this week, to close Sunday night, the spectacular feature show, 'Hell Up to Date', in which is presented some special scenery and effects, plenty of comedy. Don't miss the last bill which ends Sunday night. The chorus girls contest Friday night."

CRAWFORD OPENING.

Concerning the Crawford opening, manager Fogg says: "Mr. Albert Taylor, the most popular of all actors ever seen in El Paso, has been selected to open the Crawford, which has been overhauled and is now one of the best and safest theaters in the west. Mr. Taylor has selected one of the best plays possible, 'The Man From Texas', a great melodrama, in which will be introduced several new people, who now complete his company, making it one of the best organizations playing stock. Don't forget Mr. Taylor opens the Crawford Sunday, matinee at 2 p. m. Matinee prices: Children, 10c; adults, 25c. Night prices: 25c and 50c. New shows Monday, Thursday and a special show on Sundays. The curtain rises at 8:30."
